SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. The Junta de Accion Catolica Cubana (JACC-Inter-American Catholic Action Assembly), which is to be held in Habana, Cuba, 7-14 February 1948, is constituted to be limited to the affairs of North and South America.
2. Dr. Valentin Arenas Arminan, President of the JACC, a pro-Franquista, has secretly invited Spanish Falangists and friends of Franco to come as observers. The individuals invited are the President of the Catholic Action of Spain, Senor Pereda, who is an intimate friend of Franco, and the Secretary General of this association in Spain, Bishop Viscarra.
3. As a result of this action, Dr. Abel T. Tolon, lawyer and pro-American Cuban who is Secretary for Social and Economic Affairs of the JACC, has resigned from the group effective as of 6 December 1948. Dr. Tolon feels that the Catholic Action group in Cuba, as well as the groups in Canada, the United States, and other Latin American countries, should have been consulted before these invitations were extended.
